Learning from each other: Conversations between Gestalt Therapy and Psychoanalysis
Instructor: Lynne Jacobs, Ph.D.

SYLLABUS

The class will use readings, discussion and case vignettes to explore and illustrate what a gestalt orientation can contribute to contemporary psychoanalysis. The focus will be on a gestalt approach to transference and resistance, on present-centered interventions, and on emotional process.

Stopford, (1999). Living in Two Worlds

