INSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY PSYCHOANALYSIS
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

CLINICAL AND THEORETICAL IMPLICATIONS OF CONTEMPORARY RESEARCH IN INFANT AND TODDLER DEVELOPMENT

2013-2014

INSTRUCTORS:
Susan Mendenhall, Psy.D. and Carol Mayhew, Ph.D., Psy.D.

SYLLABUS

Session 1: Introduction and Overview:

Session 2: Stern’s Synthesis of Infant Research I
Film

Session 3: Stern’s Synthesis of Infant Research II, Critiques
Film
Session 4: Attachment I: History and Overview

Optional:

Film: Robertson’s Film, “John.”

Session 5: Attachment II: History and Overview

Film: Robertson’s Film, “Jane.”
Film: Strange Situation, Secure, Ambivalent and Avoidant.

Session 6: Overview of Lichtenberg’s Motivational-Functional Systems, Chapter on Exploratory- Assertive Motivational System, Aversive Motivational System

Session 7: Motivational Systems: Intersubjectivity

Optional:

Session 8: Contingency

Session 9: Developments in Attachment Theory and Research

Optional:
Session 10: Trauma and Disorganization

Film: Strange Situation, Disorganized Attachment.

Session 11: Beebe and Lachman: Theory of Interaction for Development and Treatment, Mentalization and Reflective Function in Development and Treatment

Session 12: Clinical Applications

