All psychoanalytic institutes in California are affected by the following new regulations. ICP is exploring multiple avenues to continue awarding PhDs and PsyDs in psychoanalysis.

Notice to Prospective Degree Program Students

This institution is approved by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education to offer degree programs. To continue to offer degree programs, this institution must meet the following requirements:

- Become institutionally accredited by an accrediting agency recognized by the United States Department of Education, with the scope of the accreditation covering at least one degree program.
- Achieve accreditation candidacy or pre-accreditation, as defined in regulations, by July 1, 2017, and full accreditation by July 1, 2020.

If this institution stops pursuing accreditation, the following will happen:

- The institution must stop all enrollment in its degree programs, and
- Provide a teach-out to finish the educational program or provide a refund. An institution that fails to comply with accreditation requirements by the required dates shall have its approval to offer degree programs automatically suspended.

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT DISCLOSURES

Pursuant to the California Education Code (CEC) §94897(p) ICP is required to inform you, as a prospective student, of the following:

- ICP is an unaccredited institution and may not be recognized for some employment positions, including, but not limited to, positions with the State of California.
- Students enrolled at ICP are not eligible for federal financial aid programs.
- Graduation from ICP's Psy.D. or Ph.D. program does not make a graduate eligible to sit for applicable licensure exams in the State of California or other states.

- ICP' School Performance Fact Sheet will be provided to you prior to enrollment

I hereby certify that all of the information in this application and the supporting documentation is true and correct. I agree that the ICP may verify any of this information and understand that I am obligated to advise the Institute of any changes that occur after this application has been submitted.

I give the Admissions Committee and the Board of Directors permission to review all of the foregoing information and materials and to contact all the above individuals, and others in the professional community, in order to assess my work and character.

I understand and agree that admission to the Institute of Contemporary Psychoanalysis is subject to approval by the Admissions Committee. The decision is final and cannot be appealed, except to the Board of Directors on procedural grounds only.

The Institute of Contemporary Psychoanalysis admits students of any race, color, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability, or national or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs and activities general accorded or made available to students at the Institute. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, gender, sexual orientation, religion, age, disability, or national or ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies and other school administered programs.

The Institute of Contemporary Psychoanalysis reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to rescind your acceptance and terminate your status at any time if, in the discretion of the Institute of Contemporary Psychoanalysis, your participation is not consistent with the goals, policies, and/or standards of the Institute of Contemporary Psychoanalysis. The decision of the Institute of Contemporary Psychoanalysis is final and non-appealable. By applying to the Institute of Contemporary Psychoanalysis, you agree to be subject to this provision regarding termination.
