INSTITUTE OF CONTEMPORARY PSYCHOANALYSIS
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

CLINICAL AND THEORETICAL IMPLICATIONS OF CONTEMPORARY RESEARCH IN INFANT AND TODDLER

2015-2016

INSTRUCTORS:
Susan Mendenhall, Psy.D. and Helen Ziskind, Psy.D.

SYLLABUS

Session 1: Introduction and Overview:

Session 2: Stern’s Synthesis of Infant Research I

Film: “The Amazing Newborn.”

Session 3: Stern’s Synthesis of Infant Research II

Film: “First Feelings.”

Session 4: Stern’s Synthesis of Infant Research III: Modifications, Critiques

Session 5: Beebe and Lachman: Theory of Interaction for Development and Treatment

Session 6: Contingency

Session 7: Overview of Lichtenberg’s Motivational-Functional Systems, Chapter on Exploratory- Assertive Motivational System,

Session 8: Aversive Motivational system

Film; Beebe on Chase and dodge

Session 9:

Motivational Systems: Intersubjectivity

Film: "The Amazing Newborn," section on "resonance."

Video of Stern

Session 10: Attachment I: History and Overview

Session 11: Attachment II: History and Overview and Developments

Film: Robertson’s Film: “John.” And “Jane”

Session 12: Developments in Attachment Theory and Research

Session 13: Trauma and Disorganization

Strange Situation Film: Disorganized

Session 14: Clinical Applications

Session 15: Clinical Applications

Film: Stern Speaking