SYLLABUS

Session 1: Introduction and Overview:

Session 2: Stern’s Synthesis of Infant Research I

Film

Session 3: Stern’s Synthesis of Infant Research II

Session 4: Stern’s Synthesis of Infant Research III: Modifications, Critiques

Session 5: Attachment I: History and Overview

Optional:

Film: Robertsons’ Film, “John.”

Session 6: Attachment II: History and Overview

Film: Robertson’s Film, “Jane.”
Film: Strange Situation, Secure, Ambivalent and Avoidant.

Session 7: Overview of Lichtenberg’s Motivational-Functional Systems, Chapter on Exploratory-Assertive Motivational System

Session 8: Motivational Systems: Aversive

Session 9: Motivational Systems: Intersubjectivity

Optional:

Session 10: Contingency

Session 11: Developments in Attachment Theory and Research

Optional:

Session 12: Trauma and Disorganization

Film: Strange Situation, Disorganized Attachment.

Session 13: Beebe and Lachman: Theory of Interaction for Development and Treatment

Session 14: Mentalization and Reflective Function in Development and Treatment

Session 15: Clinical Applications

