

ICP STUDENT SERVICES

I. Ethics Committee: The Ethics Committee's consists of ICP volunteers appointed by the Board for a consecutive three-year term, with the possibility of a second term to follow. The committee consists of a chair and members who have experience with group process, a commitment to collaborative engagement, and a sensitivity to ethical issues and concerns; these members work closely together as a cohesive team.

The ICP Board approved the ICP Ethics Code, October 8, 2017. We encourage you to periodically review the Code. Please send any comments, suggestions or corrections to: Lewis M. Barth, Chair, ICP Ethics Committee at lmbarth\_2027@icloud.com

If you have any questions or concerns regarding observance of the Code, or matters you would like to discuss confidentially with the Chair or Members of the ICP Ethics Committee, please contact:

ICP Confidential Ethics Mailbox at ethics.ICPLA@gmail.com.

II. Ombudsman Office:

The Ombudsman Office is a confidential resource for the entire ICP analytic community providing opportunities for processing ideas or concerns that may arise pertaining to the institutional life of its analytic program. We serve as an independent, neutral and informal resource. Our primary role is offering a safe and confidential milieu for facilitating solutions to concerns and issues raised by candidates, members, faculty, and staff. The intent of the Ombudsman Office is to help build community and to strengthen opportunities for enriching interaction within the analytic program

Please direct anonymous and/or confidential concerns to any one of the following.
